New Screen Magazine

No. 74 -

The Reel

CLIFF CHURCH, hidden among the peaks near Wildkirchli, is the highest chapel in Switzerland. The church can be safely reached but there is a short cut or two to it, where a misstep may mean a life. Near the church is the famous Wildkirchli Inn, much frequented by mountain climbers.

These are expensive times, but there are practical economies which can be carried out. One is to have a torn garment repaired by a process called textile reweaving, in which a sufficient amount of threads are unraveled from the seams and are woven into the fabric.

In this issue of the magazine, there is an exposition of what happens when a motor car is cranked, and this certainly will prove a revelation to thousands of owners of automobiles.

There is a collection of jokes and a brisk animated by Leslie Elton, featuring Cinema Luke.
